

Films to spark a discussion about the arms trade

(remember to check if you need a license to show films on your meeting house)

Documentaries

Shadow World - “reveals the shocking realities of the global arms trade – the only business that counts its profits in billions and its losses in human lives.”

Nae Pasaran - “With unprecedented access and research, Nae Pasaran reveals for the first time the incredible impact made by Scottish factory workers 40 years ago against one of the most repressive dictatorships of the 20th century [the Pinochet regime in Chile].”

Devil's Bargain - “From France to South Africa, Bosnia, Moldova, the United States and Canada, Devil's Bargain examines the ways in which guns slip from legal to illicit markets.”

Fiction

Lord of War - “An arms dealer confronts the morality of his work as he is being chased by an Interpol Agent.”

Iron Man 2 - “With the world now aware of his dual life as the armored superhero Iron Man, billionaire inventor Tony Stark faces pressure from the government, the press, and the public to share his technology with the military.”

There are also many films showing the horror of the weapons sold through the arms trade being used - this list has some good suggestions.
